FOREST DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

Simla-4, the 5th August, 1965

No. Ft. 12-269/57-III (E).—In supersession of the Rules relating to Departmental Examination of Gazetted Forest Officers, issued vide memorandum No. Ft. 43-150/49, dated April 26, 1949, the Administrator (Lieutenant Governor) to Himachal Pradesh is pleased to make the following Rules to regulate the departmental examination of Gazetted Forest Officers, Himachal Pradesh:—

1. (a) The examinations for gazetted officers of Himachal Pradesh Forest Department will be held in the following subjects:—

- (i) Hindi.
- (ii) Land Revenue.
- (iii) Forest Law.
- (iv) Procedure and Accounts.

Provided that those officers who have passed their high school examination or equivalent or any other higher examination with Hindi as an optional subject need not appear in the aforesaid Hindi examination.

(b) These examinations will be held half yearly in April, May and October, November each year at Simla. A list of officers who are due to pass examinations shall be maintained in the Chief Conservator's office and officers reminded in time and asked to report the subjects in which they intent to appear, in order to make arrangements for their examination.

2. Officers permanently transferred to Himachal Pradesh from other provinces in which Hindi is not a compulsory vernacular language shall, except officers of over twelve years service is required to pass an examination in Hindi by the lower standard, within three years from the date of their transfer, unless they are specially exempted by the Government.

3. Failure to pass all the above prescribed departmental examination within three years of entering service shall entail stoppage of increments. An officer failing to pass the examinations within three years as specified in para 4 below, but passing the same within next two years may be allowed increment with retrospective effect. The officer not passing the examination within five years of entry into service will not be granted increments with retrospective effect but only from the date of the last examination in which the officer passes in all the prescribed departmental examination except in very special cases with the sanction of the Government.

4. Every gazetted member of the service shall pass all the examinations within three years from the date of his appointment to the service. Government may, however, exempt any member from passing the whole or any portion of the examination or may extend the period within which a member shall so pass the examination.

5. The use of books is forbidden in the following subjects in the departmental examination of forest officers:—

- (i) Forest Law.
- (ii) Land Revenue.
- (iii) Language.

6. The examination will be conducted in accordance with the following Rules:

(A) HINDI

I. LOWER STANDARD

To read a short arzi or report or robkar written in good legible Hindi running hand, the meaning of which to be explained by the candidate. 20 Marks (10 to pass).

II. HIGHER STANDARD

1. Reading a short arzi, report or robkar written in a fairly legible Hindi running hand and explaining its meanings.

2. Writing with the candidate's own hand in Hindi a short forest order or proceeding, the nature of which will be verbally suggested by the examiner. 20 Marks (15 to pass).

(B) LAND REVENUE

The examination will be in writing and will comprise not less than six questions on the laws and subjects discussed in Baden-Powell's Short Account or the Land Revenue and its Administration in British India"; and officers presenting themselves for examinations should be acquainted generally with the contents of the work and should have acquired a detailed knowledge of them so far as they relate to the Punjab and Himachal Pradesh.

Financial Commissioner, Punjab standing order No. 28 regarding land acquisition and the Land Acquisition Act should also be studied from which also questions may be set.

The paper will be set by a revenue officer of the rank of Deputy Commissioner nominated by Government. 60 Marks (25 to pass and 45 to pass with credit).

(C) FOREST LAW

The examination will be similar to that in Land Revenue, the questions being on the laws and subjects discussed in "Baden-Powell's Forest Law"; "The Indian Forest Act"; "The Cattle Trespass Act", and the rules contained in the Himachal Pradesh Forest Manual under the above Acts. The paper will be set by the Chief Conservator of Forests or any other member nominated by him. 50 Marks (25 to pass and 45 to pass with credit).

(D) PROCEDURE AND ACCOUNTS

The examination will be in writing and will comprise twelve questions or more on the prescribed subject, viz:—

1. Forest Department Code, 6th and 7th Edition.
2. Forest Account Code.
3. Civil Account Code.
4. General Financial Rules Vol. I and II.
5. Bank of Financial Powers.
6. Introduction of the Indian Government Audit and Accounts, Part I and II.
7. General Treasury Rules, Vol. I (excluding chapters I to IV and VII of part VII and the whole of the Part VIII, XI, XII, XIII and XIV).
8. Civil Service Regulations and Fundamental Rules.
9. Rules regarding General Conduct of Business in the Forest Department.

The questions will be sufficiently difficult to test the candidates efficiency both as Range Officers and Divisional Forest Officer.

(The paper will be set by the Chief Conservator or any other Forest officer nominated by him).

90 marks (45 to pass and 75 to pass with credit). Subject to the approval of Chief Conservator any Forest Ranger may present himself for examination in any of the subjects specified in the Rules.

By order,

V. P. AGARWALA,
Secretary.
